

PROBLEM WITH ROAD CIRCUS EXPLAINED BY MAYOR

By T. W. PUE

LAC LA BICHE — In commenting on a letter by Henry Thompson in last week's issue of the Lac la Biche Herald, Mayor Lebas said not all the facts had been published.

According to Mr. Thompson's letter the town refused to give the circus rights to put on a show within the town limits and when they set up just outside the town they were still not free from official interference.

Mayor Lebas says the Town of Lac la Biche has no objection to allowing a circus to be set up in town if the proper arrangements are made ahead of time. In this case, another travelling show had been granted permission to set up in town within three days of the time the circus chose to come in, unannounced. Mr. Lebas said the town felt they could not, in fairness allow the circus to come in on such short notice and within three days of the show putting on rides.

However, the circus went ahead and put up their posters in spite of the wishes of the town council and opened for business just outside the town limits. Officials of Lac la Biche did not interfere with them there but the RCMP made a call to collect amusement taxes owing to the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan.

Apparently, the circus was in arrears to the Government for several hundreds of dollars. When this was paid they were allowed to "go on with the show."

Couple Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Lessard of Normandeau

NORMANDEAU — On Monday, July 5, Mr. and Mrs. Napoleon Lessard of Normandeau celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. This was the first 50th wedding anniversary ever to be celebrated in Normandeau. The beginning of the perfect day was a High Mass sung by Father Picotte, OMI, in the Sainte Cecile Church which had been gaily decorated for the occasion. At the end of the Mass the happy couple renewed their marriage vows which they had made 50 years ago at St. Pierre Baptiste, County Megantic, Que.

Mr. Lessard was born in Sacre-Coeur de Jesus, County Beauce, in 1882 and Mrs. Lessard, also born in 1882, comes from Ste. Anastasie, County Megantic, Que.

Mr. and Mrs. Lessard have lived in Normandeau for 39 years. They are the proud parents of 11 children. Seven of the eight living children were present for the celebration. Present were: Joseph and his wife, Yvonne Gabriel; Alphonse and his wife, Zelia Duperron; Cecile, her husband, Alex Chaput, was absent; Henry and his wife, Therese Charroin; Laurette and her husband, Lucien Hebert; Loues, Jeanne and her husband, Abraham St. Jean. Their youngest child, Therese (Mrs. Louis Bureau) and her husband were both absent. Mr. and Mrs. Lessard also have 32 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A banquet was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Hebert. Present were Father Picotte, and many relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Lessard received many gifts, notably a valuable clock from their children.

Following a buffet supper relatives and friends gathered at the school for dancing. A delicious lunch included a magnificent wedding cake.

DUKE AS AIR MARSHAL—A popular visitor to the R.C.A.F.'s No. 1 Fighter Wing at North Luffenham, England, was the Duke of Edinburgh who showed great interest in his tour of the base and chatted with several of the officers, airmen and airwomen. Dressed in the uniform of a Marshal of the R.A.F., the Duke is seen making himself acquainted with an F-86 Sabre jet, and also with Warrant Officer R. J. Bowes, of Dartmouth, N.S.

CLOTHIER'S WIN IN INTER- PROVINCIAL BASEBALL

By HENRY THOMPSON

LAC LA BICHE — Lac la Biche fans received a severe jolt as a result of the outcome of the last game played of the best two-out-of-three game match played at Lac la Biche ball diamond on Saturday and Sunday last.

Lac la Biche took the first game by a safe margin, lost the second by a one-run margin after 13 innings of strenuous play, four innings to break a seven-all tie. In the last four innings of faultless play, the Clothiers got one break on a safe hit that won the game.

The third game played Sunday evening displayed some very good ball, Lac la Biche being the first to make a tally. The Clothiers followed several innings later and then the Lac la Biche pitcher started to weaken, walked a couple and failed to fool the next two batters, overflowing one base.

The Clothiers were quick to take advantage of the situation, using trick strategy at the bat to force another couple of tallies. Lac la Biche changed pitchers but the damage was done, the bars were down and nothing the Lac la Biche manager did, could stop the power house stampede exhibited by these tough boys from the Big City.

These chaps are good and their team work is nice to watch. Their field men cut off many good drives that would have given our boys tallies galore, but that centre fielder from Edmonton, covering

Lions To Provide Playground Equipment

LAC LA BICHE — The local Lions' Club have taken on, as a community service project, the providing of children's playground equipment. The plan is to buy a number of swings and teeter-totters and have them erected on land provided either by the town or the school board.

Suggestion has been made that the playground equipment be bought by the Lions and in a special ceremony given to either the town or school board to administer.

Commercial Fishing Starts At Beaver

LAC LA BICHE — Holders of commercial fishing licenses were busy getting their boats and gear into shape last week at Beaver Lake. Commercial fishing started Monday morning.

Chicago Visitor Enjoys Fishing

LAC LA BICHE — Alex Pue of Chicago, uncle of T. W. Pue, publisher of the Lac la Biche Herald, and Mr. Pue's father of Brandon, Man., were week-end visitors to Lac la Biche. They enjoyed two successful fishing trips to Beaver Lake.

The Chicago visitor said he never before had caught so many fish in one week-end. He is sure that if more Americans knew how good the fishing is in Northern Alberta there would be many more tourists.

Vicious Auto Tire Slashing Plague Hits Motorists

EDMONTON (BUP) — A wave of tire slashings hit Edmonton Sunday. Police said they had reports of 92 tires being slashed with some sharp instrument. Thirty-two tires were punctured on delivery trucks at the Woodland Dairy and most of the other cases occurred in the same area.

The cuts range upward in size from three-quarters of an inch. On some cars, three or four tires were cut while on others only one was damaged.

First reports of the damage came in about seven a.m. Most of the cases were in the area bounded by 95th and 101st streets and 104th and 108th avenues. But four tires were slashed as far away as 112th street and Jasper avenue.

GUNMEN'S GETAWAY CAR FOUND AFTER $10,000 HOLD-UP

EDMONTON (BUR) — Edmonton police have recovered the car used by four masked gunmen who took more than $10,000 from a mortgage company today.

Police say the licensed plates on the abandoned vehicle had been taken from another car.

It was first reported three men had taken part in the raid on the Canada Permanent Mortgage Company. But police say that as far as they can tell now there were four of the men. All wore coveralls and employees of the firm said they were young.

The loot included $8,700.00 in cash and about $200 in cheques, according to the firm's chief clerk, A. A. More. He said the cheques would likely be hard to use.

The men burst into the bank about 9:30 a.m. They poked a gun into the back of an employee, S. B. Noble, who was walking out the door, and he was forced back to join about a dozen other employees and a customer on the floor.

No one was injured, although the holdup men shouted loud threats like: "I'll blow your head off." More said the raid appeared to be, in his words, "beautifully organized."

He said two of the men rifled

the drawers of the tellers' cages, putting the money in what looked like a wastepaper basket. The other two kept the employees covered.

When the container was packed with money, the leader said: "Okay, boys, let's get."

A customer in an upstairs office, William Stone, flagged a truck and chased the getaway car. But he lost the trail of the vehicle.

The Royal Canadian Mounted Police are checking roads around the city in the search for the men. But they have not yet been found.

Station Studies Methods For Reclamation Of Burned-Over Land

BEAVERLODGE — Preventing forest fires is an important step in national resources conservation. Where the fires have not been prevented the next move is to put the burned-over land to use. Seeding down to forage crops is one way to do it, and with this in mind agronomists at the Beaverlodge Experimental Station have been investigating the possibilities of various crops on the ashy, burned-over forest wastes. In charge of this work is C. H. Anderson, senior agronomist at the station.

It was in 1950 that the project started here. Severe burning on the fringe of settlement in the Peace River region suggested to the research men the need for more information about forage crops for these lands. Although seeding might be done primarily for pasture there was the secondary consideration that it would also prevent undue erosion during the period of native cover re-establishment.

Little was known about the type of crop that would do best under these conditions so several grasses and legumes were tried and a variety of soils chosen. The soils included a degraded black, a loamy sand, and two types of grey-wooded, one of which was very shallow and gravelly. All were in the burned-over areas.

Irrespective of soil type, there were certain crops that stood up well. Creeping red fescue and brome were outstanding, while timothy and bluegrass also showed promise. The fescue and brome did well whether sown in spring or fall. Alfalfa, alsike and sweet clover made a good showing when sown in spring, but late fall seed-tory.

Observations to date point to a mixture of legumes was not satisfactory. A mixture of creeping red fescue, brome and alfalfa for seeding burned-over areas under conditions of the Peace River region. Seeding in the early spring is recommended. If seeding is done in the spring following the burn, two additional benefits will accrue. The short time elapsing between burn and seeding will lessen the chance of soil erosion, and reduced weed competition will provide a better opportunity for establishment of the crop.

Prize Stock Horses At Vermilion Fair

Near record crowds turned out Thursday, Friday and Saturday to jam the fair grounds here and witness the showing of the finest beef stock, pigs, sheep and a grand array of light and heavy horses.

Robert Barr, of Vermilion, won the good Shorthorn, won the honors in the 4-H Junior Beef Calf Club showing on the first day of the fair, the animal selling for 42 cents per pound and was purchased by T. Eaton Co. of Canada. Shirley MacDonald of the Mannville Club took reserve championship honors with an Aberdeen Angus, her animal selling for 35 cents per pound to urns and Company.

Forty-four calves were exhibited and sold by the Derwent, Mannville and Vermilion Calf Clubs.

Bob Barr and his sister, Hazel, won the Chester Gamble showmanship trophy for the best team of showmen. William Cornish, M.L.A., donated prizes for the best three calves exhibited by first year club members. The winners of this award were Josie McDonald, John Clennett and Gary Bennett, all members of the Mannville Calf Club.

Immediately following the show the calves were sold by auction. The forty-four calves averaged 21 cents per pound. Chester Gamble, of Mannville, was the auctioneer. Charles Gordon, livestock supervisor for Alberta, judged the Vermilion and Mannville club calves, also the champion and junior exhibitor classes.

A pretty sight, too, was the showing of heavy horses, with the Bryden Brothers of Mannville taking top honors. With Bill Bryden driving, the two, four and six horse teams of the Bryden entry swept the field in heavy harness horses.

Lightning Strikes House

BIRDSVIEW — Last Saturday night, about 10:30, Miss Florence Mitchell gave the long "general ring" on line 5 and said Ray Cameron's house was on fire. The word spread rapidly by phone. Mr. Stewart answered a call and soon all cars in Czar were speeding toward the Rowarth-Cameron ranch. The house was full of smoke, a fair size hole had burned through the floor near the fuse box.

Evidently lightning had struck near the house causing a short circuit. Insurance representatives, electrician and carpenter have been together to assess the damage.

Alex Moisey, 76, Attacked By Thugs

WILLINGDON — Three thugs walked into the small service grocery operated by 76-year-old Alex Moisey, three miles east of Andrew, between 10 and 11 p.m. Friday night, and demanded all the money he had. When the poor old man gave them $11.00 they became enraged and hit him over the head with an iron bar, ransacked the place and left. Mr. Moisey's son George found the old man and brought him into Willingdon General Hospital, where he had 17 stitches taken in his head and where he is still in a very critical condition.

In leaving one of the thugs left his cap and it is believed that the RCMP have already traced him from this cap. It is alleged that the three are all in their teens and from the neighborhood.

Remaining stock was in the good class. Showmanship was won by Robert Mohyluk.

The following day the calves were taken to the Vermilion Fair to compete against the Vermilion and Mannville clubs, and also sold there.

Fall Wheat, Alkali Land, Hydraulic Mower, Heifers, Bacon, Egg Prices

By E. H. BUCKINGHAM, D.A.

Several farmers lately have enquired about growing fall wheat in this area. Yes, it will grow here and very likely one would have good crops for two or three years. Then it would winter kill and there would be nothing. It is best to stick to spring wheat in this district.

Low land around lakes in this district often contains quite a bit of alkali. A growing test is the best way to find out if crops will grow. If grain crops die down after the plants are three inches to six inches in height then you better get it back to grass. Tall wheat grass is the most resistant grass to alkali.

A farmer in New Brunswick converted a horse drawn mower to tractor use at an outlay of $5.00. The hydraulic control furnished with most tractors is used to control the lift. See a drawing at my office.

A freemartin is a sterile heifer born twin to a male calf. It has been found by enquiry that about 90 per cent of heifers born twins bull calves are sterile. Does anybody want to start an argument?

The Market Examiner says "You may not get much of an answer but it's a good idea to speak to animals before you speak to them". Why not raise sheep, they neither kick or bite!

When you see "Breakfast Bacon" on sale at your favorite store, it does not mean that it came from a pig. It really is "Breakfast Bacon". It is reported that beef bacon is quite popular at Calgary, where it is cured and sold in meat shops.

Don't forget you poultry men that grade A large eggs sell for twice as much as grade B's. (1) Keep the laying hens inside; (2) Try to keep the eggs clean; (3) Feed a good laying mash.

Falher Wins Nixon Trophy

FALHER—A dream of a lifetime came true Wednesday night as the Falher Canadians copped first money of $1000 and the Nixon trophy at their own tourney. This is the first time Falher has won its own tourney since it was organized some five years ago. The chief organizers of the tournament were Tom Dentinger, Doug Prensost, Bob Hauser and Alphonse Courchesne. Much of the credit for building the tourney into what it is today, the biggest and best in the north, goes to these men.

During the first day of the fifth annual tourney, McLennan defeated Girouxville 17-9; Falher subdued Peace River 8-4; U.S. Eagles defeated Grimshaw 11-9; and Donnelly trounced Fairview 9-0. Behind the steady pitching of Steve Gorgichuk, Falher came from behind twice to defeat Peace River.

Ed Steferiah was the hero of the game as he pounded out a homer with two mates ahead to put Falher ahead for the second time in the game. This blow was the margin of victory.

In the semi-finals, Falher defeated McLennan 20-3 and Donnelly defeated U.S. Eagles 19-6. Thus the stage was set for one of the most dramatic games in the north's history.

To start with it was a battle of left-handers, Tesch for Falher and Belter for Donnelly. Both pitchers threw scoreless ball for four innings. In the top of the fifth, Drake grounded out, McCarrons hit a two bagger, Kulka singled to drive McCarrons in, and then went to third on Wright's error. Steferiah then promptly hit a home run to make it 3-0 for Falher. Donnelly then scored one in the last of the sixth. Kulka hit his first home run of the tourney in the seventh, to make it 4-1.

In the bottom of the seventh, Donnelly scored two more runs to make the score 4-3 for Falher. The eighth inning ended scoreless. Donnelly threatened in the bottom of the ninth. Maisonneuve and Doucette grounded out, Heaton walked and Wright was intentionally walked. This brought up pinch-hitter Hutton, who singled into centre. Roland Turcotte picked up the ball on the first hop and threw Heaton out at the plate by six feet. Turcotte's throw was by far the best play of the tournament. The some 2,000 fans went into an uproar that could be heard for miles.

Yes, this was by far the best game that fans have witnessed for years. Falher reigns as champs of the Peace River country and retain the Nixon cup for one year. Who will win it next year? Your guess is as good as ours.

In the East Peace River League, Donnelly and Falher have advanced into the finals. The finals will be a best of five series. Winners go on to meet the North Peace River League champs.

A dance was held each night of the tournament in the Memorial Arena. The music was supplied by the Peace River orchestra.

Mearon's Celebrate Golden Wedding

ATHABASCA.—A golden wedding of interest to many of the old-timers of this district was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Mearon, Alberni, B.C., on June 30, 1954.

Sidney Mearon and Mary Stafford were married in First Anglican Church, Edmonton, on June 30, 1904, by the late Rev. Gray, who subsequently became Bishop of Edmonton.

The Mearons lived in northern Alberta for many years, and homesteaded near Athabasca. In 1925 Mr. and Mrs. Mearon moved to the Alberni Valley on Vancouver Island, where they still reside. Present at the Golden Wedding were Mrs. Mearon's two sisters and two of her three brothers.

A highlight of the celebration was a surprise turkey buffet dinner with all the trimmings, prepared by friends and relatives. The three-tiered wedding cake, cut by the bride of fifty years, was beautifully decorated in gold. During the festivities a mock wedding was performed, much to the enjoyment of everyone.

The couple received many gifts. Among these was a gold ribbon to which was attached fifty silver dollars, the gift of Mrs. Mearon's family.
